

Thousands View Body of Johnson

Funeral Tomorrow, Pallbearers Selected From Friends of Late Governor

ST. PAUL, Sept. 22.—The body of John A. Johnson, late governor of Minnesota, has been laid in the capitol rotunda, and the people of the Twin Cities and neighboring towns were given an opportunity to take a last look at the face which they all knew so well in life.

All night long the casket stood in the executive reception room, where Governor Johnson had once greeted so many with a smile and a hand-clap.

Around the bier stood a guard of honor.

CASKET IN ROTUNDA.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the casket was moved to the marble dome and the doors were opened to admit the throng which passed silently by.

The body will lie there until 9:30 o'clock tonight, when the doors will be closed. At 9:15 tomorrow morning the casket will be taken by special train to St. Peter, Minn., where it will be buried.

There will be no religious service at the capital. The body will be escorted to the railway station by ten companies of militia preceded by a band of 100 pieces.

ACTIVE PALLBEARERS.

The active pallbearers have been selected from among the governor's closest personal friends. They are Frank A. Day, who was his private secretary; F. B. Lynch, D. O'Brien, associate justice of the Supreme Court; E. T. Young, former attorney general; A. C. Weiss, member of the British Herald, and John Weiss of

The honorary pallbearers include the four living ex-governors of the State—L. G. Hubbard, John Lind, Samuel R. Van Sant and Knute Nelson—with Governor A. O. Eberhart, C. M. Stark, chief justice of the Supreme Court; Governor John Burke of North Dakota and President Cyrus Northrop of the University of Minnesota.

Arriving at St. Peter tomorrow, the body will be taken to the Presbyterian Church, where the services will be held.

Passenger Train Saved From Wreck

RENO, Sept. 22.—The second section of Southern Pacific passenger train No. 4 was saved yesterday from probable destruction on a dangerous curve near Idora by O. B. Griggs, a Postal Telegraph operator. Griggs discovered a broken rail on the first section of the track he had passed and flagged the second just in time to prevent a disaster. The broken rail was close to the bank of the Truckee River, and at that point runs 80 feet below the roadbed.

Tries to Murder Divorced Wife, Then Shoots Himself

the auto took them to the scene within a few minutes.

Becker was found lying dead on the grass where he had shot himself. A group of morbidly curious gathered around the dead body. Some one in kindness had covered the body with a cloth and the gaping bullet wound, through which a portion of the suicide's brain protruded, could not be seen.

The police officers satisfied themselves that the husband was beyond doing more harm and paid attention to the Hiram Captain Lynch saw to it that the woman had medical attention.

WOMAN MAKES STATEMENT.

It was extracted from the wounded woman a history of her shooting which in part was as follows:

"My husband and I were married five years ago. We lived together for three years but his cruelty drove me from him. I could not live with him. We were divorced two years ago. Since then he has been kind to me. I had to work for a living. I am employed as a cook in Hiram's department store. I have work there for nearly two years. My husband has failed to pay alimony. I am in support of the boy. He has turned me to and from work and has threatened me by stating that he would get the final decree in the case."

MEAN DISPOSITION.

According to Mrs. Becker's testimony in the divorce action, Becker was of a naturally mean disposition. Their first quarrel after the marriage was over a stove. The couple had taken up their residence at 612 Alcatraz avenue, and immediately thereafter Becker began to curse that stove. If he would start a fire it would be "down the stove; it will have to be chucked out, and over and over again he would shoot at the stove and his wife would declare, 'That's enough.' Then because his sister, Miss Mary Almberger, heir of 3049 Wheeler street, Berkley, had one just like it.

Becker often accused his wife of having married him only because she thought he had money and whenever she asked him for money he would tell her to use her own. He would get none from her own. He cursed her when she asked him to help her lay a carpet and she says that after having stayed away from him for about two weeks on account of his ill treatment of her she returned home to discover a couple of weeks later, that during her absence he had disposed of a quantity of silverware that had been presented to her by friends at wedding gifts.

Mrs. Becker told the court that Becker continually tantalized and nagged at her, beat and choked her without provocation and quarreled with her relatives whenever the opportunity afforded.

MADE LIFE MISERABLE.

He apparently did not want her to come to him, but merely wished to make her life miserable. He did not ask her to live with him again, but was always trying to do something to hurt her. He did not threaten to kill her. No one ever dreamed that he would do what he has done."

Those who know the dead man state that he was a good carpenter and was always able to command a higher wage than the ordinary carpenter. He broadened over his family troubles but did not speak of them very often. He confided some things to Dr. Keford, his family physician, who was called on to attend the wounded woman. Becker seemed a little better. He conjectured him self with pain at his trouble with his wife. Dr. Keford said that Becker's life in station would be the last person to advise him to attempt to murder his wife and kill himself.

He was a quiet and unassuming fellow, said Dr. Keford, "and I would never have thought that he would attempt murder. He broadened over his family troubles but did not often speak of them. When he did he merely referred to them. I never heard him say he would kill his wife and am much surprised that he should have sought to do so."

LIFE SAVERS MODEST.

Dr. Henderson and Mr. Mikkelson, whose timely arrival undoubtedly saved the life of Miss Becker, are modest in describing their share after the world-wide hubbub.

"We heard the shot," they said, "and saw the woman run. We followed toward the spot. Becker turned and ran after, however, and followed his wife for possibly thirty feet. We continued after him and he ran across the vacant lot in the direction of his horse, which was tied to a telephone pole. When we were very close to him he put the revolver to his right temple and pulled the trigger. He fell in his own tracks and was dead when we reached him."

"We then gave our attention to the wounded woman."

HAD TWO REVOLVERS.

Chief Deputy Coroner Bert Sergeant took charge of the remains. At the morgue where the body was taken it was ascertained that Becker had two revolvers. One was empty and one shot had been fired from the other. Instead of reloading the revolver he used in firing at his wife, it is evident that he used the extra pistol on himself.

In a note written in German the deceased asks that his brother take charge of his effects, indicating that he contemplated suicide. There is nothing in it to indicate that he sought the life of his wife.

French Applaud as Men Are Guillotined

VALENCE, France, Sept. 22.—Three men—Berruper, David and Lottard—were guillotined here at daybreak for a series of atrocious crimes in the department of Drome. They often tortured their victims with red hot irons. A great crowd witnessed the executions and applauded wildly every time the knife fell.

SCHOOL BOYS HARMED BY CIGARETTE SMOKING

For the past several weeks Dr. N. K. Foster, medical inspector in the Oakland school department, has been making a careful investigation of the health of school children. Cigarettes and underweighting are two of the most predominant causes of mental dullness, stunted growth and physical defects.

A number of thirty-three pupils with enlarged glands, possibly due to tubercular taint, has been charted by the medical inspector. The prevalence of maladies is shown in this list of 360 pupils in the schools, all of whom needed medical care:

FARMER GORED TO DEATH BY MAD HOGS

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 22.—An unusual tragedy has occurred at Chilliwack, in which James R. Hosken, aged 25, lost his life. Hosken, in company with Charles Carter, a farmer, was driving hogs to market along a public highway when the animals became uncontrollable. One of them attacked Hosken and he lost his footing. Other animals immediately jumped on him and gored him with their tusks.

Carter ran for help and three men armed with clubs finally drove off the hogs. Hosken died from the shock and loss of blood. He was a son of a church of England clergyman at Marcellin, England, and had been in this country only a short time.

HORSESHEO KICKED AND PAINFULLY HURT

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 22.—Fred Lambert, a horseshoe, was kicked and severely injured by a horse which he was driving, and it was necessary to have the stitching taken in a gaping wound in Lambert's left side.

He was shoeing a horse belonging to Tony Sueno when the animal aimed a vicious kick at him. Lambert jumped aside but was struck a glancing blow by the horse's hoof and was knocked to the floor. He was taken to the office of Dr. Huntington.

say, Mrs. Turner will not say. She refuses to discuss her case beyond a general denial of her guilt.

VICTIMS BY SCORE

The authorities have information, however, that the woman adopted scores of babies, and they think that they are justified from this information, in believing that she shot the two and drove them into Lake Ontario. A thorough investigation is being made.

The husband of the woman, who gave his name as David J. Turner, is known in Portland as Dan.

The police are holding him in detention. The woman has gone under the aliases of Gwyn and Gwen.

COMELY WOMAN

Mrs. Turner is a comely woman, matronly in appearance, and considered attractive by many. She is pleasing in her manner and extremely affable. She dresses plainly, but well. She has a way of gratifying herself with those who are.

When it became known in the jail that day that she had been arrested on suspicion of being a child murderer and that she was accused of that her operations had been extensive, even the other prisoners shunned her.

GRIPPLE TOTALLY INJURED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Two hundred and fifty persons were injured in the grippe epidemic which has swept the city, according to a statement made today by Julius Krutkoff.

The extensions, many of which will be begun in the near future, will call for the expenditure of practically $100,000,000.

Foremost among the plans of the Harriman interests is the extension of the Northern Pacific branch, recently constructed between Centralia, Wash., and Grays Harbor to Puget Sound, through 100 miles of the finest timber lands in the West. Of the 400 miles of Southern Pacific extension now under way 173 miles are being constructed to supplement present lines in Oregon.

Mr. Hooker thinks, though, that the young man went to San Francisco seeking work.

TRIES TO SAVE DOG; PLUNGES WITH BIG AUTO INTO RIVER

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—While trying to avoid running over a playful dog which was running at his automobile, Dr. George Walford of Lincoln, Ill., plunged his machine into the Grand Calumet river, near South Holland, yesterday, and was probably fatally injured.

Dr. Walford was crossing the bridge in a touring car, when the dog ran at the auto. The machine was swerved and its occupant plunged into the river. James Spann, 12 years old, the other occupant of the car, was not hurt.

Dr. Walford was caught in the steering wheel and dragged to the bottom of the river. He was released and removed to a hospital. The machine is still in the river.

After Visiting Oakland Rival Committee From Across Bay Will Take Charge

It is understood that the visit of Mayor Mott and Edson F. Adams to Mayor Taylor of San Francisco, yesterday, for the purpose of harmonizing the conflicting programs in the two cities for the entertainment of President Taft on the occasion of his visit to Oakland and San Francisco was not attended with success.

There were two radical points of difference. The San Francisco committee asked the President to be permitted to meet him in the heart of this city and escort him thence to the foot of Broadway, there place him and his party aboard a revenue cutter and take him over to San Francisco.

Oakland's plan was to take the President through this city, except him aboard a Key Route ferry at the foot of Broadway and accompany him across the bay to the San Francisco committee, a lunch being served en route, without the delivery of speeches of any kind. On the ferry there were to be eight cars of the President's party, the reception committee of this city and a few State officers.

Significant of these programs have been approved by the President, although it is believed that in one instance, at least, the President never heard of the San Francisco proposal.

PLAN IS ADOPTED.

It is now understood that as a last resort in the contest for the proper escort of the President through this city, Congressman Kahn telephoned to the President's secretary, asking that the San Francisco program be approved and that word be given by the Congressman that the ultimate has been given that the program devised on the other side of the bay is to proceed.

It is understood, also, that Ritchie, the chief of the San Francisco reception committee, has stated positively that the program of the men on the other side of the bay is the program which will be carried out.

There is a great deal of disappointment over the change that has taken place in the program which was prepared for this city, but that will not, in any manner, affect the warmth and patriotism of the welcome which will be extended to President Taft when he becomes the guest of Oakland.

Major Mott, Senator Perkins and Edson F. Adams went to San Francisco today to secure a United States cavalry escort for the President in this city.

KEPT CLOSE WATCH.

Several women in the town, when six weeks ago the birth of their first daughter, Mabel, six, started off to Europe with her husband, leaving the child behind. "How can you do such a thing?" Mrs. Vanderbilt was asked.

"I can hire a capable nurse for my child," she is reported to have answered, but I cannot employ a nurse for my husband."

When Mrs. Vanderbilt departed for Europe as her husband returned with his mother, Mrs. Belmont, several relatives and their sturdy little son, the late daughter, Miss Constance, named after the father's sister, the Duchess of Marlborough, remained in this country, the wife of Mr. Vanderbilt's sole surviving son in the Adlon Hotel. This may give an idea of the position of the family which had been so suddenly upset. Whether or not there is to be any exchange of children, the plan of the Frank Goulds could not be learned.

NO SCANDAL INVOLVED.

The strongest proof that the Vanderbilt has separated from her husband is in what told of Mrs. Vanderbilt leaving the Barney estate at Westbury, Long Island, for her personal use. This estate was built up by the grandfather of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, who committed suicide during the financial depression. It is not far from Willie K. Vanderbilt's estate, the sprawling residence in the separation, the friends of the Vanderbilts say.

Incompetency or temperament is held responsible for the partition.

Mr. Vanderbilt was just 21 years ago and 21 years old. There was considerable rivalry in the case of California heiress

TAFT CHEERED BY THRONG OF MERRY PUPILS

President Arises Early and Breakfasts After Trip in Mountain Air

PAYS A VISIT TO THE GARDEN OF THE GODS

Welcomed to Colorado Springs and Makes Brief Speech to Citizens

WOOLHURST, Colo., Sept. 22.—President Taft, after passing the night at the residence of United States Senator Hughes in Denver, arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning and breakfasted with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh.

The President arose at the Hughes home at 7 a.m., and after making a pre-breakfast observation of the Rocky mountains and taking a constitutional in the invigorating mountain air, announced himself ready for anything. The morning, after a night's dazzling rain, was cool and crisp. The sun was shining brightly and the President said he was being treated to the best tonic of his life.

GUEST AT BREAKFAST.

At 8 o'clock the Presidential party took autos and were driven to Woolhurst, where Taft was greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Walsh. Only a few guests were present at the breakfast.

At 10:30 this morning the President, accompanied by his train bearing the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, left Denver an hour before the event. The reception continued until 12 o'clock, and with a half hour in which to rest, the President prepared for his trip to Colorado Springs, where he was scheduled to arrive at 2:30 p.m.

AT COLORADO SPRINGS.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 22.—Sunshine of the typical Colorado variety greeted President Taft and his party when they reached Colorado Springs at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mayor Favory had issued a proclamation declaring holiday for the citizens from 2 to 4, which was generally observed, and thousands of persons enjoyed the opportunity to pay their respects to the chief executive of the nation.

He was greeted at the station by a record crowd. President Taft was escorted to his auto by Judge H. G. Lunt, chairman of the reception committee, and other members of his party were shown to other cars in waiting.

ROUSING RECEPTION.

A brief tour of the business section of the city was made. Then the party proceeded to the Mesa, overlooking the panorama of mountains and the "Garden of the Gods." Returning to North Park, the President was given a rousing reception by the 500 school children of the city.

President Taft made a brief address, frequently punctuated by applause, after which he was taken to the station and proceeded at 3:30 o'clock for Pueblo.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING BAGGAGE AT THE FERRY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Detective Sergeant Conlan and Mackey, who have been working for some time in an effort to apprehend the thieves responsible for the stealing of baggage at the Ferry building, last night arrested Ernest Meyer, who lives on Thirteenth Avenue, in East Oakland, and he was placed on the decline book at the city prison.

One of the witnesses against Meyer is Marshal Alcock, who resides at the Hotel Cavalier in Sacramento. Alcock lost a suit case containing clothing valued at $125. Meyer, it is claimed, checked this at a news stand, and daily secured different pieces of clothing from it, which he sold at various places around town.

The 'New Advanced (?) Geography.'

At a meeting of the geography committee of the Merchants Exchange held last evening, a resolution was adopted providing for the institution of legal proceedings to compel the Text Book Commission and the State Board of Education to revise the "new advanced geography" for use in the public schools of the State so that the glaring omissions and misrepresentations regarding Oakland and Alameda county shall be corrected, unless the two State organizations remedy the defects within one week. The resolution was based on a report made by President Arper that the State Board has not yet made any changes in the new geography. A few days ago it was announced, in fact, that the State Printing Office was still proceeding with the printing of the book and that some of the members of the State Text Book Commission had declared that no changes would be made. The present attitude of the commission is a gross breach of faith and a violation of a promise given to the Oakland Chamber of Commerce on August 30th that a revised and corrected edition of the geography should be issued at once. It is also strong proof that the compilers of this objectionable, worthless and misleading text book deliberately belittled Oakland and Alameda county and that with a studied unfriendly purpose in view.

The suit which the Merchants Exchange has decided to bring unless the pledge given to supply the omissions and correct the misrepresentations in a revised edition of the new geography is fulfilled within a week, will have the effect, if it accomplishes nothing else, of fixing responsibility for the glaring and outrageously misleading imperfections in this falsely described "advanced" text book and possibly uncovering the vicious and selfish motive which inspired it. Oakland has long been conscious of underhanded efforts to arrest its growth and neutralize its development, and it is time that these should be traced to their source wherever it exists. As to the "new advanced state geography" it is absolutely worthless for any purpose and should be thrown out of the public schools of Alameda as the most effective protest which can be lodged against it.

California wines are taking all the honors practically at the Seattle Exposition. Gold medals and grand prizes awarded to her vintages are multiplying at a great rate.

Austria's Naval Program.

The acquisition of the provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina has roused an ambition in Austria to figure as a naval power, their possession having fortified her hold on the Dalmatian seaboard, which constituted a narrow strip on the northeastern shore of the Adriatic. She is said to be preparing, therefore, to lay the keels of six war vessels of the Dreadnaught type. In return for the part Kaiser William of Germany recently took in the settlement of the controversy between Servia and Austria, which came near involving those two nations in a war, it is assumed that he will have the call on Austria for the co-operation of the new navy with his own fleet in the event of the friction between Germany and Great Britain should ever lead to a declaration of war. This service to Austria is supposed to have strengthened the bond existing between Germany and Austria through the triple alliance, in which Italy is the third member. It is extremely doubtful, however, whether Italy would feel bound to respect her membership in the triple alliance to join in a war against Great Britain, as the two governments have been, ever since the Crimean war, on terms of the closest friendship.

It is doubtful, moreover, whether Austria's new navy, when developed, will be of any real help to Germany should the two nations join in war against England, as their respective fleets could, by no possible chance, unite, being separated by the continent and the bay of the two seas in which each would be mobilized being controlled by the British. The home fleet of Britain, whose enormous strength was recently demonstrated at short notice, is stationed in the North Sea, ready at the first warning to blockade the certain navy in the Baltic and blockade the mouth of the river Elbe while the Mediterranean fleet would as promptly seal up the Adriatic Sea. It is evident that the naval efforts of an alliance between Austria and Germany on British interests have not been at any time taken seriously by British statesmen, & that phase of international alliance has not even been suggested in any of their public discussions and no special notice has been given by them to Austria's new naval program.

"Bumper crops all through the West" is the cheerful report Secretary of Agriculture Wilson makes at Washington on his return there from his Western trip. That means, of course, a year of increased prosperity ahead for the West.

Peace has triumphed in South America. Peru and Bolivia have amicably settled the Arctic question themselves. Argentina will doubtless acquiesce in the settlement, even though it may not accord with the award of its president, whose adjudication as international arbitrator had given such offense to Bolivia that at one time it threatened to lead to hostilities involving the three republics.

Conservative Leader Needed.

At the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors the fight of the Anti-Saloon League against the granting of liquor licenses to applicants in the body of the county which has been carried on for some time past under the leadership of Dr. W. M. Burke was renewed. Burke is the president of one of the temperance organizations and as the paid agent of the Anti-Saloon League is an official representative of the temperance people of the State. The discreditable fact was, however, brought out at the board meeting that Burke is a drinking man and patronizer of the saloons against which he has long waged an intemperate war as the Anti-Saloon League's agent. He was accused at the meeting of drinking whisky and beer at the bars of various saloons in this city and while denying the charge of whisky-drinking he owned up to beer tippling.

The point of genuine interest to the temperance people who are employing Burke as their agent is contained in the query: Can they afford to continue to be represented by a person who is admittedly a tippler and a frequenter of saloons for the purpose of drinking at their bars? It certainly does not seem consistent. It may be admitted that the temperance people are aiming to accomplish the commendable purpose of keeping the liquor traffic under decent control and reforming those who are addicted to the liquor habit. But in the light of the admissions publicly made at the meeting of the supervisors Monday, it must be obvious to everyone interested in the cause of temperance that Dr. Burke's usefulness as the paid representative of the temperance people has come to an end, and his influence is no longer of any value. What the temperance people need is an agent whose habits of life are consistent with his anti-saloon and temperance professions and one more diplomatic and conservative in his methods. Such an agent would avoid unnecessary irritation and accomplish some good in the line of temperance work, which is now practically impossible. If they are wise the suggestion will be adopted.

The San Diego Union ridicules the suggestion of the creation of a new State of Los Angeles.

Britain Antarctic Sovereignty.

The center of interest in polar exploration has now been shifted to the Antarctic. Although the South Pole has been practically proved by a recent British exploration expedition to be located in the heart of a continent, its members having traveled over the land to within 110 miles of that point, there is no inducement for any other nation than Great Britain to undertake any further exploration in that direction with the expectation of establishing sovereignty over the pole by right of discovery, as the British government has laid claim to four groups of islands lying in the Antarctic ocean and to the continent on which the pole is located, and by letters patent declared them to be dependencies of the Falkland Islands, which lay off the southern extremity of South America.

Should any foreign exploring party, therefore, penetrate to the South Pole, the establishment of sovereignty over it and to the territory lying within a radius of 110 miles of it would be an empty honor, because of the impossibility of enforcing jurisdiction over it without trespassing on British territory.

Great Britain seems, therefore, to have a "dead encircl" on the South Pole and the Antarctic continent and the waters of the ocean surrounding it. In the light of the fact that Lieutenant Shackleton, R. N., who headed the expedition that penetrated the Antarctic continent to within 110 miles of the South Pole, reported it to be a heavily mineralized region and that productive fishing grounds exist in the ocean surrounding it, Great Britain has apparently acquired a valuable territorial asset through the right of discovery, and the declaration of her sovereignty over it is evidence of her intention to hold on to it. Our sovereignty over the North Pole is truly a "gold brick" by the British. The home fleet of Britain, whose enormous strength was recently demonstrated at short notice, is stationed in the North Sea, ready at the first warning to blockade the certain navy in the Baltic and blockade the mouth of the river Elbe while the Mediterranean fleet would as promptly seal up the Adriatic Sea. It is evident that the naval efforts of an alliance between Austria and Germany on British interests have not been at any time taken seriously by British statesmen, & that phase of international alliance has not even been suggested in any of their public discussions and no special notice has been given by them to Austria's new naval program.

The San Bernardino Sun cynically announces that "at latest reports, Los Angeles was still in the State of California." The latter city's boom for State division is thus not taken seriously in its own territory.

More trouble is looming up on the Spanish-Moroccan frontier in Morocco, through the invasion of Moorish territory by the reorganized and reinforced Spanish army, which has called forth a protest to the foreign powers from the foreign board at Tangiers, which alleges that the action taken by Spain is a violation of the treaty of Algeciras. If the signatories to the treaty take notice of the protest, which they doubtless will do, the question of intervention may revive the old friction over Moroccan affairs between Great Britain, France and Spain on the one side and Germany on the other.

The regeneration conference at Saragossa will "view with alarm" and "earnestly denounce" a few patent orders in the Belgian administration, make derogatory references to James Jefferson, editor of the rubber tariff, perhaps resolve against the goings in the head of its leaders, and then哲matically resign itself to its next bidding.—Albany Evening Journal.

Hens Are Not a German Industry

Germany pays comparatively little attention to poultry raising. For the greater part of its supply of eggs and poultry the empire is dependent upon Italy, France, Belgium and the Balkan States. The imports into Germany of eggs and poultry have increased marvelously since 1872, in which year the combined imports of these two items amounted to only $600,000. In 1880 they had increased to $5,000,000, and in 1907, $37,845,750 worth of imported eggs and $12,730,500 worth of imported poultry were consumed, with exports that same year amounting only to $313,500 for eggs and $211,250 for poultry.

Farming people of Germany look upon poultry raising as an unprofitable industry and the average German farmer considers it a waste of money to raise or purchase food for his hens or to provide his fowls with satisfactory quarters. Any dark corner of a barn or a stable is usually considered ample good enough, and the fowls must find themselves all the food they require. Household sermons in most cases are fed to the hogs. It is needless to say that under such conditions poultry raising is indeed unprofitable.—Consular report.

DECREASE IN AMERICAN CATTLE CAUSES CONCERN

WASHINGTON.—In a forthcoming report James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, will call the attention of Congress and the country in a graphic way to some startling conditions in the beef trade of the United States. The fact that there has been a decrease of 2,137,000 in the number of cattle in this country in the last two years, and that the exports of cattle have dropped off nearly 100,000 in the last eight or nine months, is giving the Department of Agriculture a great deal of concern.

The price of beef has gone steadily higher in the United States, while it appears to have remained at a fairly reasonable standard abroad. Last year, for the first time in history, the shipment of South American beef into England exceeded the shipments from America. The European market for that product is said to be growing by leaps and bounds.

Although the Secretary of Agriculture probably will make no reference in his report to the rumors that persons interested in cattle raising in Uruguay and Argentina are preparing to invade the American markets with frozen beef, he undoubtedly has been apprised of them and may have some views to express concerning such a trade innovation later.

For the present it can be said that the Department of Agriculture is well conscious of the state of affairs existing on the cattle ranges in this country, and proposes at least to open up the subject

Increasing the Price on Letters

WASHINGTON.—Postmaster General Hitchcock took an advanced step the other day in the direction of making the postal service self-sustaining. He issued an order increasing the fee for the registration of mail from eight to ten cents, to take effect November 1, 1909. The order also increases the maximum indemnity paid to the owner of a lost or ruined registered letter from $25 to $50, thus doubling the department's liability for valuable articles intrusted to its registry branch.

The postmaster general is considering the establishment of a parcel registration system with a five cent fee and a small indemnity, and a preferred class of registered matter of high value with increases in the fee and indemnity up to 20 cents and $100, the limits fixed by law.—New York World.

New Penmanship In Public Schools

A new system of "modified penmanship" will be started in the public schools of the city as the result of an investigation of the subject by a committee of thirty teachers during the last several years. The new system is a modification of the old vertical style, which came in for much condensation, and the Spencerian type. The result is expected to put an stop to the cramped writing caused by the old system and to instruct the children to speedier penmanship.—Philadelphia Record.

Singular Things

Vulcan, an alleged planet, was discovered in 1851, only to be effectively obliterated from the planetary system fifty years later. Leverrier, who acted as godfather to the new addition, calculated a path and found that the planet revolved around the sun in about twenty days. Yet other observers failed to see the planet and now Professor Campbell announces that the eclipse observations of recent years prove, almost conclusively, that the existence of such a body is a practical impossibility.

Japan can boast of the most luxurious prison in the world. It is about fifteen miles from Tokyo. In the midst of gardens, where flourish medlars and cherry trees, enclosed with ponds bearing the creeps of water lilies, rises the mass of stupendous and airy cells. Lighting throughout is by electricity. Among other features are bathrooms with marble bathtubs, hot and cold water, dressing rooms and reading rooms.

Filipino prisoners in Billabong, both men and women, are now allowed a certain number of cigarettes a day at government expense.

The silent man is more to be feared than the garrulous chap.

Topics Timely and Interesting

The effect of the new Canadian law on cigarette smoking by boys is shown in the trade returns. Although 370,000,000 cigarettes were smoked in Canada since the first of the year, most of them being made in the Dominion, the number shows a decline of 30,000,000 in the figures for the preceding twelve months. The results are more striking when it is remembered that the law was in force for only eight months of the year. It forbids the sale or gift of cigarettes or cigarette material to boys of sixteen or less under penalties of from $10 to $100.

Prince Ching, head of the foreign department of the Chinese government, is pictured as an eminent Oriental grifter by the Peking correspondent of the London Times, who writes: "Since the downfall of Yuan Shih-ka I the Wu-pu (foreign office) has relapsed into its former state of incapacity, and for this Prince Ching is to blame. Amiable and corrupt, he has stood for a generation for all that is worst in Chinese officialdom. All stories tell of his rapacity, his greed, his unscrupulous sale of offices, his indifference to the affairs of state. His wealth is enormous, yet no generous charitable action has ever been recorded in his favor. Every new minister in every office of emolument has to pay him $100."

Commenting on the absence of places of worship for Jews at holiday resorts, a writer in the Jewish Chronicle of London says: "How different are the Christians! Cross the ocean and the sweet strains of a hymn of praise from the saloon of the steamer on Sunday morning strike the lonely Jewish passenger with a sense of rebuke. Penetrate to an oasis in the desert and the Church of England service is found there as a natural provision for the Sabbath needs of an English gentleman. Ascend the mountains and in the illness of the glorious heights the sentinel of the ancient Hebrew, 'I lift up mine eyes to the hills, from whence cometh my help,' stirs the reverence of the alien to the faith of the Hebrew and leaves his legitimate heirs untouched."

Elmina, N. Y., the home of Professor Ross G. Marvin, who lost his life while in the Arctic regions with Peary, is talking of a memorial to him. A monument has been suggested by the Elmina Star-Gazette and the Advertiser, which does not often agree with the Star-Gazette in anything, heartily supports the idea, saying that "a memorial of suitable design ought to be erected in one of the parks of the city."

BIRDS NORTH AND SOUTH

The Pola excepted, everywhere man goes Nature has birds to welcome him. When Peary reached the northeast tip of Greenland on July 4, 1892, he found pipes awaiting at latitude 82 degrees and 40 minutes. Nansen saw on the great Arctic ice floe gulls and auks. When the Belgica penetrated the awful solitude of the Antarctic in 1898, Dr. Cook found in the neighborhood of his base bound ship blocks of that great strange bird, the wonderful emperor penguin. It stands as a soldier on parade, erect, 32 feet high, and weighs seventy or eighty pounds. Its erect stand and arm-like wings and also its weird human-like manner of talking, waddling and prying and pecking and backing into man's affairs, make this queer bird seem like a caricature upon a fat gossip rather than a diving bird, hence Anatole France's parody on humanity in his "Isle of Penguins."

MOONSHINE IN GEORGIA

ATLANTA.—Forty warrants for the illicit distilling of whisky have been sworn out within the last few days in the United States district attorney's office in Atlanta. This amazing record is typical of the entire year and bears out the statement of internal revenue officials that there has been more moonshining in Georgia in the last twelve months than in years.

"Since prohibition went into effect," said a revenue officer, "moonshining stills have sprung up in nearly every county in Georgia."

The moonshiner liquor is lower in quality and higher in price than ever before. Corn whisky that sold for $1 a gallon three years ago is now $1 a quart—New York Sun.

ABOUT PEOPLE

That Edison is as fertile as ever in suggestions appears in his proposal that the East River, New York, be filled in and its waters provided with a new channel dug across Long Island at a point farther east. Good authorities pronounce the scheme by no means chimerical. The real estate value of the present site of the river would be almost beyond calculation.

Restrictions on the range and the high prices in the feeding districts are assigned as the chief cause of the big cattle shortage. The free public range is now a limited affair, owing to the extent of the forest reservations and the grazing regulations imposed by their management. Hay for winter range feeding is expensive, and in the feeding grounds of the Middle West the stock raiser now is paying from 50 cents to 82 cents for corn which two years ago cost him from 20 cents to 60 cents.

Briefly Told

It used to be said of the Dutch farmers of Pennsylvania that it was easy to see in what their hearts were placed—their barns were better than their houses and their cattle received more care than their wives and children. It must have been a similar condition of affairs in a New England county that prompted the climax of a soldier's speech. A Yankee militia captain, whose company was about to march against an invading enemy, thus depicted the awful consequences of the foe's success: "Gentlemen, they will lay your towns in ashes, murder your wives and children and pull down your fences."

There was an old woman in England who was about to make her first railway journey and when she arrived at the station she did not know what to do. "Young man," she said to a porter, "can you tell me where I can get my ticket?" "Why, mum," he replied, "you get it at the booking office, through the pigeon hole." Being very stout, she looked at the ticket window in amazement and then burst out in a rage: "Go away with you! How can I get through there? I ain't got no blessed pigeon."

Congressman Livingston of Georgia was standing outside the senate finance committee room when the delegation of young woman hosiery workers from Philadelphia left that room, after an audience with Senator Aldrich. Senator Smoot, who is a Mormon from Utah, and a member of the finance committee, left the room in the lead of the young women. "Who are all these young women?" asked a man who watched the procession curiously. "Smoot's wives," said Livingston laconically.

CAUGHT IN ACT OF ROBBING CAR

SPECIAL RAILROAD OFFICER ARRESTS MAN FOR LOADING WAGON WITH TOBACCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Special Railroad Officer Edward McCarrahan of the Santa Fe Railroad captured one of two men who were in the act of robbing a car on a siding at Bay and East streets at 6 o'clock this morning and who for boldness and daring of their work have gained the name of "the Monarchs." The officer noticed that the seal on the car had been broken and saw two men loading bags of tobacco on a wagon.

On his approach one of them, Tony Gotelli, informed him that they had an order for the goods and presented a bill of lading which he was unable to read. While the man was engrossed, McCarran, in conversation, his companion suddenly jumped on the wagon and drove off at a furious rate.

Thirty bags of tobacco, valued at $450, were secured by the man who got away.

SAN FRANCISCO SUPERVISORS FAVOR AMENDMENT TO PRESENT ROAD ORDINANCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—An amendment to the present ordinance defining the rule of the road by the addition of a section compelling vehicles when passing a street car to turn to the right, is unanimously favored by the Board of Supervisors. In the present ordinance this point seems to have been left uncovered, though in section 5 it is provided that vehicles be required to keep to the right when passing each other.

A car and he feared to lose the man before him. Gotelli was accordingly arrested and booked at the Harbor station, his name being placed in dispute.

Thirty bags of tobacco, valued at $450, were secured by the man who got away.

ANNEXATIONISTS WILL HOLD RALLY

ELMHURST CLUB WILL HEAR PROMINENT SPEAKERS AT HIGHLAND TOMORROW

ELMHURST, Sept. 22.—The Elmhurst Annexation Club will hold a rally tomorrow evening, Sept. 23, at Rochdale Hall, Highland, and the subject of discussion will be annexation to Oakland.

Professor Seaman of the Melrose High School will be one of the speakers of the evening and will come prepared to give facts and figures to his audience.

Among the other speakers will be James J. O'Toole, John Tiedemann of Elmhurst, D. H. Hulbert of Melrose and several business men from Oakland.

The subject of taxes will be thoroughly taken up and it is stated that figures will be shown which will substantiate the assertion that Alameda has higher city taxes than Oakland. Last year Alameda's city tax was $1.30, while Oakland's was only $1.20, this according to R. B. Miles of the Merchants' Exchange.

FAVORS OAKLAND.

Citizens of the territory proposed to be annexed are not taking kindly to the Alameda annexation movement and state that they will work all the harder to be annexed to Oakland. Following is what some of the best known and most prominent citizens of the community think of the subject:

D. Murphy, Undertaker of Elmhurst: Annexation to Oakland for me. Let us join to a city where we know we will benefit by all the latest improvements and where there is some life in the commercial affairs.

"For my part, I am, and always was, for annexation to Oakland, because the city taxes of Oakland are not as great as those of Alameda and the benefits to be obtained in Alameda would be far below those to be obtained in Oakland.

"Alameda is a well governed place, but Oakland is the proper place for us to annex to, for it is only a part of a town until Berkeley, Piedmont and Alameda will become part of the city and county of Oakland."

THE PROPER MOVE.

F. Brewington of Hood and Brewington, real estate—"As long as the people of this district do not desire incorporation, I am greatly in favor of annexation to Oakland. I believe that this is the proper move and that this annexation to Alameda is only made to take the minds of the people from the main issue.

"We want to annex to Oakland and we want a five cent fare to that city. This we shall obtain by annexation to Oakland. A five cent fare to Alameda would do us no good. But to Oakland, our market place, that is different. By all means annex to Oakland."

H. Wagner of Wagner & O'Toole, real estate—"Why should we wish to annex to Alameda? There is no good logical reason for so doing so that I can see. We would annex to a city where there are no large department stores and shops as there are in Oakland. There is no main line depot to eastern points. No large financial and banking institutions as there are in Oakland. No triple transbay service such as we have in Oakland. In fact, there is nothing in Alameda commercially which compares with Oakland in this respect.

"I could stand all day and point out to you comparisons along this line which would plainly show why I am in favor of annexation to the live and hustling city of Oakland. Oakland for us and Elmhurst for Oakland."

HAS GREAT FUTURE.

M. Hennas of Howland & Hennas, real brokers of Melrose—"I am decidedly in favor of annexation to Oakland. Oakland has a future in front of her as great as that of Chicago. Annexation to Oakland is the logical move and for my part I will do all I can to carry this forward."

The annexation club is elated over their success in having Alameda give up the idea of annexing Elmhurst and say that before the next three weeks are over they will have Melrose and Fruitvale entirely out of the movement, as the facts to be presented to them will be more than voters would care to vote against.

The meeting in Rochdale Hall is an open one and all are cordially invited.

admits this to be an experiment, but, if facts count for anything, this experiment should result in a success so complete that this particular effort of ours will soon be followed with another of the same nature.

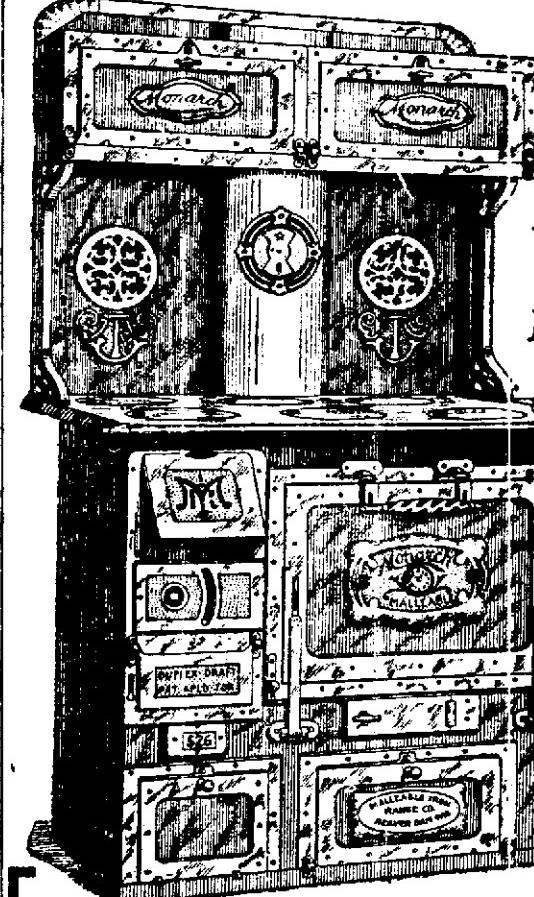

We are offering today Moyenage dresses made right here in our own city. We did not buy them for sentimental reasons or from any feeling of local patriotism. We bought them because our experience in such matters tells us that these costumes are equal to any that can be purchased in the New York market. They are absolutely faithful to the newest styles and are superior in every detail of making to the dresses that we can buy in New York for the same money.

In the selling of these garments we are not going to make a great profit. We want to see if San Francisco women will accept dresses equally as good as those manufactured in New York City—as good in style qualities—as good in material values—as good in tailoring.

We have bought thousands and thousands—yes, hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of costumes for our store—we have ourselves manufactured hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of costumes in New York City—but never have we presented a better value than that which we offer today.

These Moyenage dresses are made of fine qualities of Broadcloth, in all the newest and wanted shades, including black. The illustration will give you an idea of the style. The value is far in excess of the price asked.

FIRE PERILS POLLARD
BOULDER CREEK HOME
ALAMEDA, Sept. 22.—The summer home of J. P. Pollard at Boulder Creek was threatened by fire yesterday afternoon, when a fire which started in back to Boulder Creek at Rolling Gulch spread for half an hour.

The flames came to within ten feet of Pollard's home. The summer residences of J. P. McMullen, E. E. Carrell and W. Kinsey of Oakland were barely saved. Back firing saved the Pollard's home.

OLD SORES KEPT OPEN BY BAD BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because of bad blood. The circulation has become contaminated with impure, polluted matter which has not only diseased the blood, but also destroyed its plasmic or natural healing properties. The sore or ulcer therefore remains open, while the morbid discharge from the circulation into it, causes the place to inflame and fester.

Impurities in the blood which keep old sores open, come from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds

BAD SORE FROM OLD WOUND.

I want to recommend S.S.S. to any who are in need of a blood purifier, and especially as a remedy for sores and obstinate ulcers. In 1887 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel, and having on blue woolen stocking, the place was badly poisoned from the dye. A great sore formed and for years no one knows what I suffered with the place. I tried, it seemed to me, everything I had ever heard of but I got no relief, and I thought I would have to go through life with an angry, discharging sore on my leg. At last I began the use of S.S.S., and it's but a short time until I saw that the place was improving. I continued it until it removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore. JNO. ELLIS. 108 Wyckoff St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Local or external applications cannot cure an old sore, because they do not reach the blood. Such treatment may reduce the inflammation, lessen the pain and discharge, and tend to keep the place clean, but can do no real good toward effecting a permanent cure. The sore cannot possibly heal until the impurities have been removed from the circulation and its natural healing constituents restored.

Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for old sores, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S.S.S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing, blood-nourishing, roots, herbs and barks. S.S.S.

has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the properties that are most necessary in all impure or morbid conditions of the circulation. When S.S.S. has purified the blood, old sores heal readily and surely because they are no longer fed and kept open by a continual discharge into them of disease-laden, irritating matter from the circulation. S.S.S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh where the sore is located, and makes a lasting cure because it restores the healing properties of the blood. BIG LAND DEAL IN MERCED RANCH LAND

MERCED, Sept. 21.—One of the largest land deals in this section of California was completed yesterday when the C. W. Wooster Company of San Francisco took a bond on the Chowchilla ranch 34 miles south of Merced. The ranch contains 188,000 acres and the deal is said to have involved more than a million dollars. The Wooster Company plans to irrigate the tract and colonize it.

The ranch long has been famous as a stock farm, and since 1882 has been under the superintendence of Isaac Blvd, a well-known stockman.

The property is owned by the California Pastoral and Agricultural Company, the stockholders of which live in Scotland. E. L. Elyte of Edinburgh, one of the stockholders, has been here during the bond negotiations.

SIMPLE COSTUMES ARE FORM FITTING

Dress Makers' Convention Decrees Manner in which Gowns Are to Be Built

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Except for the fact that costumes this winter will be made of cloth of gold, with over drapery embossed with monograms and cartouches, styles will remain simple. At least speakers from the platform at the dressmakers' convention last evening asserted repeatedly that nothing was simpler than the costume for the immediate future. And all the while the four living models appeared in rapidly succeeding changes in costumes which did not look exactly as if they could be made in twenty-four hours in the house.

GOWN OF LACE.

Prominent among the promoters of the "simple" costume was Mrs. Ida McElroy Gibson, editor of the Woman Beautiful magazine, the speaker of the evening, who, in a long gown, consisting not of lace, but of fine muslin and lace lace and in a hat adorned with a bunch of bird of paradise feathers as large as an asparagus bush, sat forth the pleasure, the grace, the good taste and the difficulties of the simplicity desired for the present season.

WEAR "SAF" COLORS.

No self-respecting evening gown, for instance, comes in less than three layers. It is not only unshapely, but an effort to wear any but a "safer" color. To achieve this latter effect and at the same time to add the savage taste color on the bottom layer. One takes bright, "India-style" green, as some one described it, as a foundation on which to build a skirt and over it throws a second one exactly the line of the first, the latter being of some color such as transparent gold, over that one drapes a tall, billowy skirt, still of exactly the same hue, ofatty chiffon, of yards of ruffles around the bottom and of a dull color, such as smoke.

THE NEW FIGURE.

"What is the style of figure which is to prevail this year?" Miss Ripley was asked.

The new figure is absolutely form fitting from the throat to the knees, the hair low, the dress tight under the arms, across the bust, the waist drawn in to the natural size, the skirt tapering in to a curve from waist to knee. But over the knee the skirt should be extremely full, flaring in waves and rippling about the feet.

It is this note that calls for the corsets to be well laced shorter.

"At the moment the fashion is fitted closely to the knee," you must remember.

The only difference in corsets is that they are now so smaller in the waist, and larger in the hips."

MONTEREY COMPANY MUST PRODUCE BOOKS

SAN JOSE, Sept. 22.—An Appellate Court decision has been received here sustaining Superior Judge Gosney in his refusal to hear the petition of the Monterey Coal Company for a change of venue in the suit of Alfonzo Fellers and other stockholders against that corporation until the company had obeyed an order of the court to produce its books and to give itself of record. The court also sustained Judge Gosney's position that the application of the motion to change of venue was not competent to the court to hear the motion for change of venue.

STORY OF CRUELTY IS TOLD BY WIFE

Husband is Prize Brute of County According to Woman's Tale

Sally M. McLean of 1826 Union street, Alameda, has instituted her second suit for a divorce from James E. McLean, a carpenter, in the Superior Court, and her husband is guilty of one-half of the atrocities she charges against him. He is the prize human brute of the county.

Drunkenness, Mrs. McLean says, is the cause of all her domestic woes. Her first suit was begun in 1907, but she states in her complaint that she dismissed it upon McLean promising to quit drinking and treat her kindly. For a time he lived up to his pledge, the wife alleges, but it was not long ere he was drinking again harder than ever and committing brutalities upon her than ever before.

BADLY BEATEN, SHE SAID.

McLean alleges that during the week her husband would work steadily and keep comparatively sober, but when Saturday came he got drunk and then put in most of his time until Monday morning making life miserable for her. According to the complaint he would often choke her until she was almost insensible and knock her about with his fists until her eyes were swollen and discolored and her features disfigured and black and blue.

Once she asked him to let her go to a dance, he said he had been to no place of amusement for several years. She said an elderly lady would chaperone her and promised not to dance with any other fellow if he forbade it. Do you think McLean granted her request? Not much.

According to the complaint he turned upon her like a madman, cursed her until her hair raised, tools held of her and hurled her to the floor and then proceeded to kick her into a state of semi-consciousness with a pair of heavy mountain brogans he was wearing.

STRIKES HER ON HEAD.

On another occasion, according to the complaint, McLean struck his wife on the head with her own straight hammer handle and roughly cracked her skull; he dragged her out of bed to the floor and then through the house, from one room to the other, striking her with his fists so he dragged her and threatening to kill her at every step.

Mr. McLean charged that one evening his husband went home drunk and because supper wasn't ready he proceeded to clean out the house. He wrecked the kitchen and dining room, strewing cooking utensils about and dashing china dishes to pieces upon the floor, and then when Mrs. McLean interfered and tried to prevent him from doing more damage he turned upon her, grabbed her by the shoulders in his powerful grip and thrashed her about against the walls and furniture as if she were a mere toy in his hand.

The wife also alleges that repeated times McLean insulted friends who called to pay a visit and drove them from the house with his profanity. She also says that one night about midnight he went on one of his drunken furries and assaulted her with a chair while she lay in bed. He beat her up unmercifully, the complaint says, and would have killed her had she not succeeded in escaping from the house in her night dress.

Restores Pleasing Pluminess

Samson Sold Under Wishart's "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

There are a good many people in Oakland who ardently wish they could find some way of getting fat and plump. While not ill, yet they are so thin and scrawny that their friends think they cannot be well. In nine cases out of ten this condition can be readily overcome by using the combination of flesh-forming food known as Samson. This little tablet taken three times a day with the food does wonders in building up good health and restoring the pleasing plumpness that is so desirable.

Before the discovery of Samson, people who were thin, weak and run down were advised to take some nauseous preparation of cod liver oil, but now with this flesh-forming food in palatable form nothing at all disagreeable is necessary to gain weight.

Wishart has the agency for the preparation and sells it upon the promise of "If it does not do all that is claimed for it in making people gain in weight and in health, the money will be refunded."

CAR BROKEN.

Noah's Ark is owned by Mollie Randolph, a rich American girl, who starts out to tour Europe in the machine, accompanied by her aunt, Miss Kedison (Miss George Woodthorpe). The play opens with the auto in the foreground, resting, while the French chauffeur (Wilton Dale) makes repairs. He decides that the car needs a new crank, secures all the money he can from Miss Randolph and deserts the woman at the roadside. In this plight she is discovered by Winslow, who tells them that he is chauffeur by the name of Brown. Winslow helps her repair their car and away they go to Paris.

There is many a laugh in this first act — a bulky car is always funny to the spectator — and the fun that starts runs right through the play. It is good fun with nothing of the slap stick order about it. Of course, during four acts of thrilling adventure in France the American girl finds herself falling in love with "Brown," who is not in the least annoyed by this turn in affairs. The plot to the play is exceptional, containing as it does several distinct themes.

PLAYERS DO WELL.

As a whole, the cast did good work, particularly Miss Cooper, Miss Woodthorpe, Landers Stevens, Charles Place and Godfrey Matthews. Others in the play were Anita Murray, Wilton Dale, Lee Willard, Annie Rogers, Fred E. Green, Mabel Fitzpatrick, Beth Andre, Howard Voss, Edith Searle, Marcus Page and Frances Prosser.

Matinee of "The Lightning Conductor" will be given Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, with the final performance Sunday night.

AUTO COMEDY IS GOOD PLAY

Broadway Actors Give Splendid Interpretation of "The Lightning Conductor"

Something decidedly refreshing in the way of comedies was given Monday night at the Broadway Theater when "The Lightning Conductor" was put on for this week's run. The plot of the play all hinges about an auto, one of the sort that stops with a great clatter every mile for extensive repairs. The particular car in this case was an ancient German vehicle, named, in honor of its antiquity, Noah's Ark. Its whimsical nature led to the meeting of the Honorable John Winston (Landers Stevens) and Mollie Randolph (Miss George Cooper) and a series of adventures in which they played the leading part.

GRAND JURY TAKES UP SEWER WORK

Will Drop Public Administrator Scandal and Question Various Contractors

The grand jury will pass the public administrator's report temporarily and devote its session tomorrow morning to the sewer work which contractors are doing in the city.

What the jury wants to know is what the contractors have failed to leave the streets in the condition they were found when they undertook their contracts, why they have been so slow in making instances in building sewers and allowed the public thoroughfares to remain obstructed for an indefinite long time with evasions and materials, and why, as ordered by the board of public works to hasten the construction and open the streets to traffic, they have defiantly ignored the demands and continued their alleged slipshod methods of construction.

CONTRACTORS SUEPNOAED.

Judge Edward F. Groteluschen, Edward F. McNeil, Mayor Mott, and Thomas Gibson are seated on the grand jury which was sworn in before the Alameda County courthouse this morning.

The geography committee of the Merchants' Exchange at a meeting last night listened to the reading of a report from President George W. Arper to the effect that the Board of Education has not made the necessary changes in the new state map which is to be issued October 1st. The committee seems to agree with the contractors' demand that the Board would be taken in case the matter is not remedied during the coming week.

The Board has promised to make changes according to Arper, but as yet nothing has been accomplished in the matter.

Police Department Seeks to Add Six New Men to Force

ALAMEDA, Sept. 22.—Asking for an extension of time until next spring to improve the roadway between its tracks, the Oakland Traction Company sent a communication to the City Council last night. The company's engineer stated that a large amount of work is now under way and that the company would prefer to do the Webster-street roadway work next spring. KRUMB REPORTS ON BRIDGE.

Councilmen Krumb reported that he had asked the Superintendents to have the Webster street bridge opened and closed only when absolutely necessary and with as much speed as possible and he stated that the county commissioners had agreed to attend the meeting. Councilman Krumb said that he had noted an improvement in the service already.

The police and fire commission was instructed to look into the matter of sealing off bay at Alameda in a barn in the rear of his store. The building inspector ordered that it be against the practice to seal off the bay and the building inspector ordered the same. The auditor, the fire chief and the building inspector.

ARK OF LATE ACTRESS IS SOLD UNDER HAMMER

ALAMEDA, Sept. 22.—"The Sunny Side," formerly owned by the late Grace Abbott, actress, was sold yesterday morning for $1,000.

He had held important positions under the government and was a prominent figure in San Francisco. His knowledge and writings on economics, legislation and reform won him a varied existence before coming to this city. He had traveled extensively through the Indian Territory, Texas, Arizona and Kansas, and served in the army during the Spanish-American War.

He was about 40 years of age. Funeral arrangements had been made by Company G for his return from encampment at Santa Cruz tomorrow.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 22.—The senior class of the local high school has challenged the faculty to a baseball game to be played at Recreation Park, Friday.

The seniors and the faculty contest their ability as ball tossers every term and the latter are generally ousted by the younger and more agile players, but they have not become discouraged by their defeats and are out practicing to put on a better game Friday.

Superintendent of Schools Will C. Wood and Dr. George C. Thompson will be among the strongest men out for the result.

NEW GAS COMPANY TO BE ORGANIZED

Berkeley Capital Being Interested in Enterprise for Destroying Garbage

BERKELEY, Sept. 22.—With contracts for the sale of all its products excepting fuel gas, the San Francisco Gas Company of San Francisco, which has recently opened up an incinerating plant for garbage in West Berkeley, has interested a number of Berkeley capitalists in the formation of a company to be organized with a capitalization of $250,000. It is planned to have the company a thoroughly Berkeley organization, although an attempt will be made to get outside men.

The San Francisco company claims to produce a gas that is non-asphyxiating and superior to all other gases in the market at heat and pressure. It also has a plant in operation at Pacific and South streets in West Berkeley, with a capacity of two tons of garbage a day. The consumption of heat gradually increased by the addition of incinerating so that the company expects to be able to handle the entire output of the city in six weeks' time.

IMPORT WOOD FOR GAS.

The company is incorporated without any officers emanating from the place and the product is fuel gas and creosote. With the formation of the gas company to furnish fuel gas to Berkeley, it will be necessary to manufacture more gas than can be produced from garbage and it is planned to buy wood for this purpose. The wood will be brought from the northern part of the state and through Berkeley people.

Richard G. Sloane, president of the San Francisco company, says he has interest in getting the gas company to Berkeley to handle the refuse so that the company already agreed certain that it will be incorporated within the next few weeks.

TROUBLE CAUSED BY HINDU LABOR

Residents Report Thefts and Police Find Conditions Insanitary

ALAMEDA, Sept. 22.—Hindu labor, employed by the Southern Pacific company in Alameda, has caused a row in the local sanitary district and an investigation by the police.

J. R. Powell, 230 Central avenue, reported to the police yesterday that a gang of Orientals are occupying box cars on the Southern Pacific tracks at Pearl street and Clement avenue and that they are a public nuisance.

"They steal my lumber," Powell, who is a contractor, told the police. "And they also stole a wagon load of trees which I had bought from the railroad company. Their quarters are insanitary and a menace to the health of the residents of the neighborhood. Can't you do something to abate the nuisance?"

Officers were detailed to investigate the complaint. They reported that the conditions around the quarters were in a most insanitary state.

The police have notified the sanitary inspectors and an investigation is to be

JOHNSON REFUSES TO POSTPONE CONTEST

CHAMPION BELIEVES KETCHEL WANTS TO GET OUT OF MATCH

Alameda Club to Hold Boxing Show Tonight at Car Barn--Rheumatism Cause for Postponement of Lightweight Scrap

By EDDIE SMITH.

JACK JOHNSON telephoned us this morning to explain in his stand in regard to the postponement of the John Britt vs. Ketchel contest which is scheduled for October 12 and which Coffey and Britt have put over for Portola week. John in defense of the stand has been taken against the living day of the match in the following manner:

I believe that I would be foolish to consent to any postponement of this contest. Ketchel has had six months a living at my expense and during that time he has never paid me a bit with his nasty tongue. I have no particular grudge against Ketchel but I still insist on getting him into the ring and showing him how much he knows about the game of boxing. Ketchel has been offered $5000 on his chances with me and he will have to go through with that bet. But it would be foolish to get out of the full amount of the money.

JOHNSON, LITTLE ROTTEN APPETITE.

In fact that the men want to pull out of the match is the writer he believes that it is wrong in so far as Ketchel is concerned. What Britt thinks the men have no way of finding out for the manager can talk as well and can't lastly on a match that he does not want as he can on one that is easy to get.

As far as Ketchel however we know the Michigan boxer long enough and well enough to say that the man does not live that Ketchel would be afraid of him in the ring. He is one of the most confident young men the ring has ever had. In fact he is foolishly confident that he can beat any and all fighters who appear in the game today.

THE ALAMEDA CLUB is the man who is the real champion to Jack Johnson and the others that Britt and Ketchel will slip into San Francisco with few people knowing the name of either jumping into any spot Ketchel will be driven to Mallette's to prepare for the championship contest.

WEST OAKLAND CARD

The West Oakland Club will hold their next show Wednesday night at 8 o'clock and 2nd and Market streets. The drawing card will be Bill Burns and George Edwards will make a return match of 10 rounds. Those who witnessed the six rounds between this pair last month will be delighted with the prospects of the boys fighting their feud out over a longer round.

ABOUT SMITH AND JOE COLLIER are to meet in the main preliminary. These are both 200 pounders and both have championship aspirations. The big and only kid McAdoo and Jimmy Linton will meet in the 1st go end to pair of red heads should put up an enthralling bout.

BIDS FOR BIG FIGHT

ORDINANCE FULL OF LARGE LEAKS

No Regulation to Make Drivers Keep to Right of Streets

City ordinance No. 2745 has been declared inoperative in so far as it requires vehicles propelled by horses or other animals to keep to the right and, as a consequence, there are no policemen who are stationed at the intersection of Broadway and Two streets and also at the intersection of Broadway, Fourteenth street and San Pablo avenue is given, so far as the ruling to keep these vehicles at those places on the right side of the roads is concerned.

The officers stationed at those places have failed to protect the people who are generally numerous in those intersections because the majority of vehicles on both sides of the streets not only conform to section 171 but endanger the safety of private cars by waiting for or maneuvering from the curb.

The discovery was made by the police in the case of John C. Dolan, who was arrested at Officer Dolan's station for passing to the left through a number of crossings embarking from the cars and meeting vehicles coming in the opposite direction. The officer was acting under instructions and order as was supposed of sections 3 and 4 of the ordinance in question.

Fault in Law.

This ordinance was passed some time ago for the government of the small of automobiles and motor cycles, making a special exception of railway cars with a run on tracks.

While the title of the ordinance limits the provisions of the ordinance to the machines referred to, yet there is in section Nos. 3 and 4 references which would indicate that the ordinance was intended to apply to vehicles of any kind.

The provisions of these sections were discovered by Sergeant of Police Woods, who, for a time, thought that he had come across a law which could be enforced and thus compel the vehicles propulsed by horses to keep to the right as well as automobiles and motor cycles.

The matter was therefore brought to the attention of Deputy District Attorney Deacon and City Attorney O'Brien, and the sections were declared inoperative so far as vehicles other than autos and automobiles were concerned.

This means that there can be no prosecution of Dolan on either of the charges made against him, of which there are two pending, for passing to the left, for having "steered to the right," he drove around the block and repeated the alleged offense, whenupon Officer Dolan took him into custody the second time. Dolan, however, was bail on each charge.

A question has been raised now as to whether the ordinance is now also defective with respect to automobiles and motor cycles also under the provision of the law that the title of an ordinance must set forth the purpose of the measure and nothing else. In this case the ordinance contains provisions compelling the drivers of all vehicles to keep to the right, whereas the title refers only to autos and motorcycles.

BEATS WORLD RECORD THUMPING THE PIANO

RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 22.—Hoy Hardin broke the world's record for continuous piano playing in a contest that ended last night. He played 16 hours and 22 minutes, which was 10 minutes better than the record. Hardin was almost a week older than the record, but it is not believed he will suffer permanent damage.

CHILD OF DESERTED BRIDE GETS RICHES 68 YEARS LATER

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Because, in January, 1881, she declined to promise to "Tobey," Mary U. Torrance (nee Powers) was deserted shortly after the marriage ceremony, making her the wife of James Torrance. After almost sixty-eight years Mrs. Laura Speer of Ellsworth township proved to the Superior Court of Allegheny Orphans' Court at Pittsburgh yesterday that she is the child that was born of this strange marriage, and the court awarded her half of the estate of her father, James Torrance, who died worth $20,000,000 many years ago.

It was not until Mrs. Speer produced letters which had been exchanged between her mother and father almost seventy years ago that the court was convinced and ordered that half the estate be given to Mrs. Speer, who is now gray-haired and tottering.

FAVORS MONOPOLIES.

"It is unfortunate that very frequently the efforts of our friends of legal authority to assist us in our extrava- gant acts in behalf of the public lands and power sites, 'Butterfield, by legal authority,' Garfield, in order to prevent the monopolization of power sites, withdrew from entry certain lands which originally withdrawn by Garfield, Ballinger had restored to entry. And in this connection, therefore, that Garfield was not acting within the law and was not authorized by legal authority" when he became President that he was in full sympathy and accord with the Roosevelt policies of conservation and would see power sites he withdraw the lands which Ballinger afterward restored, is, of course, a reflection on the President.

HOPE TAFT IS RIGHT.

"It is to be hoped that the President is not mistaken when he said that the secretary 'falls in sympathy with the attitude of this administration in favor of the conservation of natural resources,' especially as the President has assured us both before and after becoming President that he was in full sympathy and accord with the Roosevelt policies of conservation and would see them carried out."

"It is to be hoped that the criticism which Secretary Ballinger has incurred during the first six months of his incumbency of the secretaryships of the interior may not be any indication of what will happen to him during the remaining year and a half years of his term of office. The west will be glad if it shall be proved that the secretary has been treated with that cruel injustice of which the President speaks."

PINCHOT WON'T TALK.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22.—On his arrival here last night from Avalon, Clifford Pinchot reiterated his refusal to make any comments on the President's vindication of Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior.

"I will tell you about how I caught two swallows in a single day, but I will not say anything relating to official affairs," he said.

After receiving the President's letter which met him here, containing official information of the Ballinger decision, the chief forester again declined to talk. He said he would leave here Thursday for Washington, after delivering an address before the Friday Morning Club.

ORDER TO DO SO.

The President mentions but one order of Ballinger's restoring to entry only one million and a half acres. He says also that Secretary Ballinger made this

COOK PLANS TO TAKE TRIP WEST

Book About Ready and Explorer is Busy Completing His Records

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—"Home" will again rest for Dr. Fred A. Cook for weeks to come. The man who says he was first at the north pole arose today after ten hours' sleep to begin a day of hard work.

Lived in the sitting room of his suite at the Waldorf-Astoria were nearly 100 letters and telegrams from all parts of the world, to many of which he must give immediate answer.

Dr. Cook will stay in his rooms almost continuously until his next public appearance, which will be at the banquet of the Arctic Club tomorrow night.

BOOK ABOUT READY.

Dr. Cook has put all but the finishing touches to the first book he will write of his polar experiences, but it is probable that he will write a series of magazine articles also. His first labor will be the preparation of the record of his discoveries, upon which he depends to convince the scientific world and through it the world at large that his claim is well founded. He has promised that his record will be given to the public as soon as it is finished first with the University of Copenhagen, and probably without waiting for the verdict of that body.

PLANS WESTERN TRIP.

Thus far all that Dr. Cook has made known regarding his plans for the future is that he will make a trip through the western states during which he will lecture and probably speak at a number of public functions. While delayed due to events to events of this kind, he has been unable to map out anything like a definite schedule.

Scoring Points Against Defense

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Isaac W. Schmitz, formerly a bookkeeper in the treasurer's office, was recalled to the stand in the Tompkins case this morning, and repeated his story of his entire innocence in the case, which was admitted by the defense. The defense was admitted for a limited purpose only, whereupon he took a long argument, which allowed him to leave the witness stand.

The principal point made by the prosecution was brought out in the following manner: Wetherell testified that he had a number of checks drawn on the treasurer's office, and that he had written on the back of each check a date, after which he had to go to the office of the bank to cash them. In doing this he found the ball a count in the ledger. In ticketing the pages and been aware and knew that the old man did not know what had become of them. Later he informed the witness that they had been transferred to another book.

GREAT PARADE DISPLAY.

Virtually all Odd Fellows within 150 miles of Southern California participated in the parade, temporal as well as spiritual, and the court awarded her half of the estate of her father, James Torrance. After almost sixty-eight years Mrs. Laura Speer of Ellsworth township proved to the Superior Court of Allegheny Orphans' Court at Pittsburgh yesterday that she is the child that was born of this strange marriage, and the court awarded her half of the estate of her father, James Torrance, who died worth $20,000,000 many years ago.

More than 16,000 men were in the column, along with the numerous floats designed by Bunker Hill and Redwood members in decorated auto-

The President then continued: "A part of the Republic and all of the Dominions of the Sate United in press for consideration a general income tax on individuals throughout the United States. The law was as near as it could be met. This party will be met by the application to be made by the new corporation tax law. Mr. Taft said he had favored at first an inheritance tax, but the objection that the State had pre-empted that field had sufficient weight to defeat the proposition."

EXCESS OF NEEDS

The President then continued: "A part of the Republic and all of the Dominions of the Sate United in press for consideration a general income tax on individuals throughout the United States. The law was as near as it could be met. This party will be met by the application to be made by the new corporation tax law which had once been considered by the Supreme Court."

"Another feature of it is that individuals will give the federal government opportunity to secure most valuable information in respect to the conduct of corporations, their actual financial conditions which they are required to show in general terms in a public return. In addition the law provides that means under proper limitations of investigating fully and in detail their course of business."

"Up to this time we have no adequate statistics concerning our corporations, which are to be used to determine the amount of the proposed tax."

"In this way, gradually but effectively the concentration of wealth in one hand or a few hands will be neutralized, and the danger to the Republic which has been anticipated by a continuation through generations of such accumulating fortunes will be obviated."

FAVOR'S ESTATE TAX

"The part of the income tax itself for this purpose will I think never be very successful because of the direct (already) indicated—the difficulty of finding the income upon which to impose the tax and the opportunity that perjury will offer to evade it. An inheritance tax cannot be thus evaded because when a man dies his property must come before some court for consideration and administration with a view to its legal transmission, and therefore, those who are succeed, however reluctant, must always make a showing of just what the deceased left in order that they may require valid title to the succession."

"It seems therefore that the present Congress has taken the wisest course in adopting as much of the feature of income tax as conforms to the Constitution and by recommending an amendment to the Constitution which shall enable us to round out and perfect this corporation tax so as to make it more equitable and so as to make it an instrument of supervision of corporate wealth by Federal authority."
